American Citizen. His career of glory through life was unstained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of general Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:—the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free frm foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmunship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be compleated, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The INK shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN: and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splended edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splended Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A "Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving.

Committed

TO my custody some time past as runaways, a Negro woman and two children. The Negro woman calls herself Ann Butler, and says she is free, and came from Nottingham in Prince George county upwards of seven years ago to this county, where she has lived as a free person ever since.—She is 5 feet 2 inches high, of a very dark complexion, and appears to be about 28 years of age—had on when committed an oznaburgh shift, an old white cotton petticoat, and a red calico frock.—Her oldest child is a boy, who is called Thomas—of a dark complexion, and appears to be about 5 years old.—The other is a girl, who is called Ann, also of a dark complexion, and appears to be about 3 years old. The owner is desired to come and take them away, otherwise they will be sold as the law directs, for their prison fees, &c.

Baltimore Hospital,

24th August, 1818.

THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas.

The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the construction of the building, and their care of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these Institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive; the whole building being now 360 feet in length.

The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in.

The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care—the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatick asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assert with confidence, that the sick and afflicted of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable: the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every praise too, which the visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchel, the Stewart and Matron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.

Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chiappi, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made," but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.

The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen:

Doctors Colin Mackenzie } Attending
James Smyth } Physicians.
Dr. Horatio Gates Jameson, Atten'g Surg.
Doctors George Brown, John Coulter, John Campbell White, Solomon Birkhead, John Cromwell, Peter Chatard, Ashton Alexander, John Owen, William Donaldson } Consulting Physicians.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Narristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages; nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1818.

The Edinburgh reviewer, to whom we are indebted for the account of the Loo-Choo islands, heretofore published in our columns, just as he is about to close that account, speaks in the following manner of the conduct of captain Maxwell, the commander of the Alceste, in the very trying circumstances in which he was placed by the shipwreck of that vessel subsequently to her sailing from Loo-Choo.—This captain Maxwell, by the bye, is the very man who for his services to his country, received at the late election from the ultra-legislators of Westminster—the instructors of representatives, and the would-be check-masters of parliament and general legislation—THE MOB—the reward, (indeed the only one it was in their nature or competence to bestow) of a severe assault and battery, and pretty nearly a passport into the other world, by assassination.

"We find we have no room left for Mr. Mc Leod; (the surgeon of the Alceste, who has published the account of her shipwreck) and indeed it would not be fair to crowd in a mutilated and abridged account of the animating and ennobling story of the loss of the Alceste and the deliverance of the crew, at the end of an article already too long for the place it holds in the volume. We mean hereafter to return to the subject; and to make it and the contrast it affords to the frightful and disgusting scene of the wreck of a French frigate, about the same period, an occasion for some remarks on the national character of the two countries, which appear to us important, and we trust, may be so expressed as to be instructive, without being invidious. At present we shall only say that the conduct of captain Maxwell, and his officers and ship's company, on this trying occasion, seems to realize all that imagination could conceive of perfect discipline and judgment, operating upon that calm and generous courage which can only exist where the conscience is void of offence, and the heart enlarged by kindly affections."

Of the French shipwreck, with which the Edinburgh reviewer has thus proposed to furnish his readers in a future number, enough is come to hand, through the Quarterly Review, to keep the attention of the public alive till the promised contrast shall appear.—We take it from a review, in that work, of a French publication, entitled "Naufrage de la Frigate La Meduse faisant partie de l' Expedition du Senegal—par J. B. Savigny Exchirurgien de la Marine, et Alexandre Correard, Ingenieur Geographe; tous deux Naufrages du Radeau. Paris, 1817.

Of this horrible affair, respecting which the English critic says, "it presents the details of a scene of horror that can scarcely be conceived to have taken place among men in a state of civilized society—and of which a French critic affirms that there never was a recital more terrible—that it makes one shudder in every page, and tremble at every line—and that the subterraneous scenes of Ann Radcliff, and all the imaginary horrors of our melo-dramas and our tragedies, shrink to nothing before the real horrors of this dreadful catastrophe." The amount, put into as brief a shape as possible, is as follows:

In an expedition sent to take possession of certain places on the coast of Africa, which were restored to France at the general peace, the naval part was intrusted to M. de Chaumereys, who had the command of the frigate La Meduse, of 44 guns. Owing to the bad discipline of the crew and the ignorance of the officers, the frigate was run aground on the bank of Arguin. Attempts to get her off, equally inefficient and shameful, all failed; and all hopes of saving her being abandoned, they concerted measures for the escape of the passengers and crew. Some biscuit, wine and fresh water, were put into the boats, and upon a raft hastily constructed for the purpose. On the raft which was to carry the greater number of people, they put the least share of the provisions: they had of wine more than enough, but not a single barrel of biscuit.

There were five boats.—In the first, the governor of Senegal and his family—in all only thirty-five, though it might have carried twice as many; the second took forty-two persons; the third, twenty-eight; the long boat, eighty-eight; the fifth, twenty-five; and the jolly boat, fifteen, among whom were Monsieur Picard, his wife, four children, and three young ladies. One hundred and fifty of the military were embarked on that fatal machine the raft.

M. Correard, the geographical engineer, volunteered to accompany his men on the raft, and wishing to be assured that proper instruments and charts for navigating it had been put on board, was told by the captain that every thing necessary had been provided, and a naval officer to take charge of it. This naval officer, however, jumped into one of the boats, and never joined them. The boats pushed off in a line, towing the raft, and assuring the people on board that they would conduct them in safety to land; but when they got about two leagues from the wreck, they, one by one, cast off the tow lines, and abandoned the raft to its fate, each striving to make off with all possible speed.

At this time the raft had sunk below the surface, to the depth of three feet and a half, and the people were so squeezed one against another, that it was scarcely possible to move. Fore and aft they were up to the middle in water. When the boats disappeared, they considered themselves as deliberately sacrificed, and swore to be revenged of their unfeeling companions, if ever they should come on shore. All perceived their destruction to be at hand, and announced by their wailings the dismal thoughts by which they were distracted.—M. Correard had preserved a pocket compass, but this fell through an opening in the raft, and disappeared.

Oppressed with hunger, they mixed the biscuit, of which they had about twenty-five pounds, with wine, and distributed it in small portions—Night came on, the wind freshened, and the sea began to swell.—Their only consolation now was the belief that they should in the morning discover the boats. At midnight it grew stormy, and the waves broke over them in every direction.

In the morning the wind abated, and the sea subsided a little; but a dreadful spectacle presented itself. Ten or twelve of the unhappy men, having their lower extremities jammed between the spars of the raft, unable to extricate themselves, had perished in that situation. Several others had been swept off by the violence of the waves—Twenty had disappeared. "Already (says the narrator) was the moral character of the people greatly changed! Two young seamen threw themselves into the sea, after deliberately taking leave of their comrades. All this, however, was nothing to the dreadful scene which took place the following night. When evening approached, and no boats were to be seen, a spirit of sedition spread from man to man, and manifested itself by furious shouts.—Night came on, the heavens were obscured with thick clouds; the wind rose, and with it the sea; the waves broke over them every moment; numbers were swept away, particularly near the extremity of the raft; and the crowding towards the centre was so great that several poor wretches were smothered by the pressure of their comrades, who were unable to keep on their legs.

Persuaded that they were on the point of being swallowed up, both soldiers and sailors resolved to sooth their last moments by drinking till they lost their reason; they bored a hole in the head of a large cask from which they continued to swill till the salt water mixing with the wine, rendered it no longer potable. They now became deaf to the voice of reason, declared their intention to murder their officers and then cut the ropes which bound the raft together. One of them, seizing an axe, began the dreadful work—the officers rushed forward to quell the tumult, and he with the axe was the first that fell, by the stroke of a sabre. The passengers joined the officers, but the mutineers were still the greater number; one fellow was detected secretly cutting the ropes, and immediately flung overboard.—Others destroyed the shrouds and halyards, and the mast fell on a captain of Infantry and broke his thigh. He was instantly seized by the soldiers and thrown into the sea, but was saved by the opposite party. A furious charge was now made upon the mutineers, many of whom were cut down: at length this fit of desperation subsided into egregious cowardice.—They cried out for mercy, and asked forgiveness on their knees: but after an hour of deceitful tranquillity, the insurrection broke out anew. The mutineers ran upon the officers, like desperate men, with knives, and such was their fury that they tore their flesh and even their clothes with their teeth: there was no time for hesitation—a general slaughter took place, and the raft was strewed with dead bodies. On the return of day it was found that in the course of the night, sixty-five of the mutineers and two of the others had perished. One cask of wine only remained. The unhappy creatures whom death had spared in the course of the night, fell upon the carcases of the dead, and began to devour them. Some tried to eat their sword belts and cartridge-boxes.

A third night of horror now approached, but it was more tranquil, being disturbed only by the cries of those whom hunger and thirst were devouring. Morning shewed ten or a dozen lifeless on the raft. A shoal of flying fish passing the raft, left near three hundred on it; so contriving to light a fire, they mixed the fish with the flesh of their deceased comrades, and all partook of a meal rendered less revolting by the mixture.

The fourth night was marked by another massacre. Some Spaniards, Italians, and Negroes conspired to throw the rest into the sea. A Spaniard was the first to advance with a drawn knife—the sailors seized and threw him overboard—an Italian seeing this jumped over—the rest were easily mastered.

Their numbers were at last reduced to twenty-eight, fifteen of whom only appeared able to exist for a few days. The other thirteen by the decision of a commander decided to throw them overboard.—Three sailors and a soldier undertook the execution of this cruel sentence. This sacrifice however saved the rest, who had yet six days suffering to undergo—at the end of which time they were relieved by the Argus brig, which had been despatched from Senegal to look out for them.

Of one hundred and fifty embarked on the raft only fifteen were received on board the brig, and of these six died shortly after their arrival at St. Louis. Such were the neglect and indifference of their ship-mates who had arrived in safety, that had it not been for the humanity of major Paddy and captain Campbell they would all have perished.

Mr. Aaron R. Jones, of Long Island, N. York, is estimated to have raised, this season, on eight acres of ground, 48,000 muskmelons, valued at 4,800 dollars.

The Washington Gazette remarks, that, "The intimation in some of the western papers, that Gen. Jackson intended to resign his command in the army of the United States, is we learn, without foundation. The General has in him, constitutionally, so much "opposition stuff," that it is conjectured, if he thought such a determination acceptable at head quarters, it would be the very reason why he would not."

The Steam boat navigation on our rivers, continues in high reputation. Whatever the sense of pleasure may pronounce, the men of business are pleased with the certainty and punctuality they are adapted to produce. A steam boat double masted, has been provided at Philadelphia for a regular packet between that city, and Havana in Cuba. Another at N. York for the Ocean. A steam boat has been provided to pass between Plymouth and Elizabeth City in North Carolina. The steam boats of the interior trading to New Orleans, are already 20, and their tonnage is between 3 and 4 thousand tons. As we attend to our inland navigation, we find our hopes from it increase. FLOURISHING COMMERCE.

Upwards of fifty vessels from foreign ports, arrived at New-York the last week, mostly from Europe, and nineteen from Liverpool alone.

About forty have arrived in Boston, in the same space of time mostly from Europe and India.

While sailing a few miles below the Light House, on Monday afternoon last, we counted 124 sail of vessels, standing principally in a direction for the District of Maine: [N. Y. Gazette.

INDIAN CORN.

From every quarter of our country, (southern states only excepted) the accounts respecting this valuable grain are favorable—and in all probability more ripe corn will be gathered this season, than the whole quantity produced in the three preceeding years.

The following Advertisement in the N. Orleans papers, will show the manner that quack-doctors are dealt with in that section of our country.

"NOTICE TO HALF-WAY DOCTORS.

Those who practice the profession of medicine without having complied with the law of the state, relative to the subject, may expect to be dealt with according to law. A list is now ready for the states' attorney which will be delivered in a short time for prosecution. Prepare yourselves! the laws shall not be violated any longer.

SCHOOL OF ELOQUENCE.

On Thursday the declamations of the candidates for the Boylston Prizes for Elocution, took place in the meeting house, before the Judges appointed for the purpose, and an audience in every particular as respectable, elegant and numerous, as that of the preceeding day. The competitors were about twenty in number; and the two first prizes were awarded to Chas. C. Lee, (son of the celebrated General Henry Lee, of Virginia,) of the senior class, and John G. Blanchard, of the Junior class; and the three second prizes, to Walter R. Johnson, and Edward E. Law, of the senior, and William G. Reed, of the junior class.

ANOTHER REVOLUTIONARY HERO GONE.

Died at his farm on Laurel Hill, Somerset co. (Pa.) on Monday the 31st ult. MAJOR GENERAL ARTHUR ST. CLAIR.—His remains were intered on Wednesday. The last few years of this venerable patriot were spent in journeying to and from the seat of government, in endeavoring to claim from the congress of the U. States, what was justly due him. Often have we seen this war-worn veteran, whose wasted frame, and palsied limbs, would have elicited compassion from a stoic, endeavoring to convince the House of the justice of his claim, while the tear of wounded honor fell fast on his aged breast. Useless entreaty—his claim was barred by the statute of limitation, and his grey hairs suffered to sink in penury to the grave. It would be an act of retributive justice, if those who doomed him to pass the remnant of his days in a wretched hovel, surrounded with the horrors of indigence, should die as he has done—in abject poverty!

EXTRAORDINARY.

Capt. Pinkham, of the sloop William, who arrived at Norfolk on the 1st inst. in four days from Nantucket, informs, that on Saturday, 30th August, about 140 miles E. N. E. from Cape Henry, he passed through a school of about three hundred Spermaceti Whales. Some of them he represents as being very large.

The Newburyport Herald of the 1st inst. remarks, that "the season at the eastward has become dry, and the earth parched. The typhus and bilious fevers prevail in an unusual degree in several towns in Kenebeck."

The National Intelligencer informs the public that CENTS, to any moderate amount, may be had, on application at the Mint of the United States, in Philadelphia, in exchange for an equal sum in specie, or in notes receivable in the Bank of the United States.

From the Freeman's Journal.

Messrs. M'Corkle & Son,

I have been troubled with a corn on my toe, for a great while, and after having tried almost every reputed remedy in vain I was at last recommended to try the turpentine which is found on the pine trees. It in a few weeks entirely softened the corn, and I then extracted it without difficulty. Thinking that this may be of use to persons troubled with corns, I make this simple remedy public.

I am, Sir, your's respectfully. H. L.

LATE FROM HAVRE.

The fast sailing barque Spartan, capt. Coffin, arrived at this port last evening, in 26 days from Havre.

The Spartan left Savannah on the 8th of June, and has made the whole voyage in the remarkable short period of 75 days, including the delays of lading and unlading. To the politeness of capt. C. we are indebted for J. Winslow's (English) Havre Price Current of August 7.

Commercial.—A gentleman of this city, has favored the editors of the Gazette with the following extract of a letter from Mr. BEASELY, American Consul at Havre-de-Grace, dated the 30th of July last.

"HAVRE; July 30.

"Since I commenced operations, nine Americans have arrived, six of which I have entered at the custom-house; the others were entered by the brokers. Capt. Hall, of the Comet, was taken by surprise: they have agreed to do his business for 1*f.* per ton, without the usual reserve for the 50 centimes, which they have been in the habit of exacting since the masters entered into resolutions not to pay 30 sous. The other two vessels the ship Maria Caroline, and brig Mary Ann, addressed to Martin Foache & Son, and Oppermam Mumdrot & Co. would also have been entered by me but the masters were advised by their Consignees to give their business to the Brokers. I, as a matter of course, will never interfere in such cases; but I think it right that this fact should be made known in order that owners of vessels may leave their captains at liberty to employ any one they please to do their custom-house business.

"The brokers have managed to make a fool of a etroi officer here, who has seized the spirits, &c. on board of the vessels for stores, upon the plea that the declaration of these articles at his buareau, ought to be made by them. I have written to Mr. Gallatin on this subject, and this pitiful puny effort will, like the bribe, &c. which have been made use of, prove unavailing.

THE SEA SEARPENT NOT TAKEN.

Yesterday capt. Rich returned to port from his spirited and praiseworthy expedition in search of the Sea Sepent. He has been unsuccessful in capturing that animal but having availed himself of taking an aquatic animal seldom on our coast, called the ABICORE or TUNNY, (SCOMBERTHYNNUS) the capture gave rise to the reports of the acquisition of the Sea Serpent; which a zealous wish to add to the stock of natural history, and to resolve the doubts of the existence of such animals, induced it to be generally credited. We regret the present disappointment of the meritorious adventurers, and the public; but are confident it cannot invalidate the mass of evidence which has been adduced by hundreds of witnesses in favor of the appearance of such an animal on our coast.

The fish taken is about nine feet in length and six or seven in circumference, and probably weighs 70 or 80 wt.

For Sale,

VALUABLE LANDED PROPERTY.

I WILL offer at public sale, on the premises, a small tract of land, lying in Prince George's Co. five miles from Alexandria ferry, immediately upon Piscataway Creek, and nearly opposite the village of that name. The tract contains 187 1-2 acres. The soil is of that kind temper that receives the use of plaster and clover more speedily than the same process would do in Frederick. There is about 40 acres of meadow land in this tract, which only requires the seed. The situation is finely elevated, the water excellent, and a plentiful supply of oak, poplar, locust and cedar. Also, a quantity of all kinds of stock, plantation utensils, &c.

☞The sale will commence on Tuesday, the 25th November next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, at 11 A. M. when the terms will be made known.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber about the 4th of August, Negro Woman LOUIZA—she is 25 years old, about 5 feet five inches high, and stout; has some of her front teeth out, and is apt to laugh when spoken to; she has a sister Marinda and a mother living in Georgetown, one above Semmes's tavern, and the other on Herring Hill, where she has been harbored for two weeks, and left there to come home, but has not done so. I expect she can be found in Georgetown or Alexandria, where she has many acquaintances. I will give the above reward if brought home, or lodged in jail so that I get her again.

Notice.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Honorable Court of Charles County as a Court of Equity, I shall expose to public sale at Port-Tobacco, Charles county, Maryland, on Wednesday the 7th day of October next, all the real estate of which General John Mitchell died seized, lying in Durham parish in said county, consisting of two tracts of land adjoining each other, called Hollyspring Resurveyed and Meek's Park, containing about 730 acres. This estate is situated contiguous to that of Colonel John Tayloe's, near Maryland Point, and within two miles of the river Potomac, is considered one of the most healthy in that neighborhood, lies level, and the soil (a part of which is already strong), is thought to be susceptible of speedy improvement by the use of clover and plaister of paris. On this estate is a very considerable body of wood and timber, which if converted into money would probably pay the purchase money.

The improvements are a two story dwelling with two rooms and a passage on each floor, and a cellar under the whole, kitchen, Negro quarters, barn, and corn house, and an orchard of some of the choicest fruits.—A more particular description of it is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumable that those inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the day of sale. It will be sold either entire or in parcels for the accommodation of purchasers.—The purchaser or purchasers will be required to enter into bond, with approved security for the payment of the purchase money in one, two and three years, with interest, payable annually from the day of sale; and on the ratification of the sale by the Court, and the payment of the purchase money, and not before, a deed or deeds in due form will be made, conveying all the estate, right, title, interest and claim, to the premises that the said John Mitchell, deceased, held in the same, which title is indisputable.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of line fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Lands for Sale.

I WILL sell on accommodating terms the following very valuable property:

A tract of land containing 340 acres, lying on the Potomac River, at the mouth of Pomonkey Creek, about sixteen miles below the town of Alexandria: the larger portion of it is level land, with a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant scites for building, of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding an extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than thirty miles up and down the river—located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from the advantage of the best navigation and its proximity to market, an extremely profitable farm.—

There are houses upon it for the comfortable accommodation of the negroes necessary for its cultivation. Plaster acts well on all the adjacent country.

A tract containing 334 acres lying about one mile back of the former, a large portion of it in wood—it is high, stiff land, in soil similar to the one abovementioned: upon this tract is a tenement in tolerable repair.

A tract containing 100 acres, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles below Alexandria. The whole of this is first rate river bottom, and now completely enclosed. On this tract is that well known fishery called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of 2000 dollars in one season, and where, independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season. Besides the profits of the fishery, is the advantage of Manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, from which, with industry, the whole may be annually manured, so as to produce at least ten barrels of corn to the acre. On the fishery shore is a dwelling house, and houses for holding salt and curing any number of fish, and for the accommodation of the hands.

A tract containing 236 acres, lying about one and a half miles from the last mentioned tract, more than 200 acres of which are in wood, which would afford 20 cords, at least, per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has of late rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord.—It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots to suit purchasers.—If preferred the wood will be sold standing for so much per acre.

William Mason residing near the head of Mattawoman creek, about 7 miles from Porttobacco, will show the lands to those who may wish to see them.

Valuable Estate for Sale.

UNDER the authority of a decree from the Equity Court of Prince George's county, the subscriber will on Wednesday the 23d day of September next, offer at public sale, at the house of Isidore Hardy, in Piscataway, a most valuable property, the Estate of George R. Leiper,

Esq. deceased, so well known by the name of MONTPELIER—about 2 miles from Piscataway, 9 miles from Alexandria, and 16 from Washington city.

This farm, which contains rather more than 600 acres, is truly valuable. The soil is fertile and highly susceptible of improvement by the use of clover and plaster. The buildings are good and commodious, and the scite of the Mansion, in beauty of perspective and salubrity of air, is excelled by few on Potomac river. To be enabled to appreciate fully the elegance of the situation and all the advantages which result to the possessor of this valuable estate, it is only necessary that it should be viewed, which may be done, and every necessary information obtained, by application to the subscriber, or Mr. Aquilla Baden, the present manager of the farm.

The terms of sale are that the purchaser shall pay one-third in ready money, and the residue in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with approved security, and on the ratification of the sale by the court, and the payment of the whole purchase money with the interest thereon due, and not before, the trustee will execute to the purchaser a deed in the terms of the decree. The purchaser on complying with the terms of sale, will have the liberty of seeding a crop of winter grain.

Lexington for Sale.

THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being one half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale. About two-thirds of it is covered with an uncommon heavy growth of white and bl'k oak, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge, whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia, (a distance of 20 miles only) where timber and fuel are always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying those articles from situations further down the river: the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose; together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The improvements are spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, dairy, smoke-house, office, ice-house, a well of excellent water, and a falling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubberies and flowers, exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence, commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends in an uninterrupted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is so far bounded as to render the expense of enclosing it comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is really beautiful beyond description. There are likewise attached to this estate four valuable however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land. The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams abovementioned, the various creeks and inlets that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters. When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaption to improvement by the use of plaster, which has been proved by experiment, its vicinity to society, to market, to two manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 6 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate, of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac. It will be sold entire or divided to suit purchasers.

The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-3ds in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, secured by a deed of trust on the land—which will be shewn in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William Allison or Mr. Weston, residing on the premises.

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on Saturday night the 27th ult, a Negro man by the name of JACOB THOMPSON, aged 22 or 23, nearly 6 feet high, very black, and rather a down look when spoken to—he is very apt to put one hand up to his chin when answering questions. He is a very submissive orderly fellow—His clothing that can be recollected consisted of a blue second cloth coat with yellow buttons, nearly new; Russia sheeting shirts and trowsers, and a variety of other clothing not recollected. I fully expect he must have from 150 to 200 dollars with him in money—and very little doubt but he had furnished himself with free papers. The above tract of land lies about 16 miles from Winchester, and about 6 miles from Charlestown, and on the main road leading from Winchester to Baltimore, city of Washington and Alexandria. It is well adapted to plaster and clover, and is in quality little inferior, if at all, to that of any farm in that rich valley. The improvements on it are a large two-story frame dwelling house, barn and other necessary out houses.—The water is limestone and of excellent quality.

Any person wishing to view the premises will be shown them upon application to John A. Washington or Bushrod C. Washington, living near the land.

March Term, 1818.

ON application to Charles county court by petition in writing of John Smith, of Charles county, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Jno. Smith has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said John Smith is in actual confinement for debt, and the said John Smith having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles county court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him—It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said John Smith be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday of August next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in said county, on the said third Monday of August next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause why the said John Smith should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 20th day of June 1818.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TREACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself.—It is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 5 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Robert Brent, esqrs. and Mr. Dudley Diggs. Negro Treace has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a seaton put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured in jail, or if out of the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again, 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned harboring or employing said Negro at their peril, as the law will be rigorously put in force against any offender.

BILL IN CHANCERY.

Robert Perry
James B Dunnington, Robert Dunnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Bloxham and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.

THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate. Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non-residents.—It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed. PROPOSALS,

By Gideon Fairman, John Binns and Charles S. Parker,

TO PUBLISH

A Splendid Edition of

Washington's Farewell Address,

To the People of the United States.

THE world has seen enough of warriors and of Heroes—enough of Statesmen—of men who have guided Armies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valour in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his cause, wooed Victory till he won her: who covetted no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote: who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people, whose gratitude conferred them: who superior to all Monarchs, was content to be called the American Citizen. His career of glory through life was sustained by crime; and his death was felt as a loss by every individual of that community, whose political existence was the fruit of his exertions.

THE FAREWELL ADDRESS of general Washington is the condensed result of long experienced, matured reflection and strong anxiety for the permanent prosperity of his country. His advice concerning the great importance of maintaining indissolubly the federal Union: the danger of indulging too much in party feelings:—the necessity of supporting public credit at home:—of maintaining public faith in all our transactions with foreign nations: of encouraging foreign intercourse free frm foreign attachments:—are so many lessons of prudence which we should do well to bear in constant remembrance. Why therefore should not his legacy of wisdom and affection, be so published, as to admit of being constantly before our eyes? An ornament to our apartments, while it serves as a memento to guide our public feelings, and to manifest that the author lives in our memories?

To make it such, is the aim of the proposed Edition.

The Publishers are determined that the Address shall be printed on paper of the same quality and size as the splendid edition of the Declaration of Independence now engraving, & shall in all respects be a companion worthy that great State paper.

As errors are known from various causes to find their way into the most important writings, the publishers feel it their duty, not only to satisfy themselves, but to satisfy the public, of the authenticity of the copy from which this splendid Edition of the Farewell Address shall be published.

MR. GEORGE BRIDPORT will complete the Design; of which the following is an outline:—The introductory part of the Address, in highly finished ornamental penmunship, shall form the upper part;—the other parts of the plate, shall be appropriate ornaments;—in the centre below shall be engraved, from an historical design for this publication by Mr. Sully the Surrender of the British Army at York-town, October 19, 1781.

The Address itself shall be printed with type of a peculiar and appropriate character, designed for this purpose by Mr. Fairman, and to be cut and cast by our best artists. No more of the type shall be cast than will be necessary to execute this Address; & when it shall be compleated, the type and the matrices in which it was cast shall be utterly destroyed; so that no other work shall ever be executed by the same letter which shall have printed the "FAREWELL ADDRESS" of him who lived and died, first in War; first in Peace, and first in the hearts of his Countrymen.

The paper, of the first quality, 36 by 26 inches, will be made by Mr. Amies. The INK shall be carefully prepared, and of the best materials.

The signature of General Washington from which it is proposed to execute a fac simile for this publication, is that which he affixed to the Constitution of the United States, when he signed it as President of the Convention in which it was framed; Thus associating and concentrating some of the greatest events in the life of this great man and in the history of his Country.

The ornamental writing will be designed and executed in the very best manner; the ornamental parts of the design and vignette, will be engraved by G. FAIRMAN: and the Typographical part executed by John Binns. They will take especial care of the execution of their several duties in this respect, and they will call to their aid, all that liberality, zeal and industry can command from the Sciences and Arts, so as to make the "Farewell Address" no mean specimen of the state of the Fine Arts in the United States.

As much progress has already been made in designing and procuring materials for this splended edition of Gen. Washington's "Farewell Address," it is expected it will be ready for delivery, with the Splended Edition of the Declaration of Independence, in the month of December next. That the public may have a more perfect view of the design and style of execution, than can be given in a proposal, of this Tribute to the memory of him who was "a Conqueror for the Freedom of his Country! A "Legislator for its Security! A Magistrate for its Happiness," it is not intended to solicit any Subscriptions until the Ornamental parts of the plate shall be executed. It will then be submitted for public inspection and public patronage, at five dollars a Copy, payable on the delivery of the Engraving. Philadelphia, July 31.

Committed

TO my custody some time past as runaways, a Negro woman and two children. The Negro woman calls herself Ann Butler, and says she is free, and came from Nottingham in Prince George county upwards of seven years ago to this county, where she has lived as a free person ever since.—She is 5 feet 2 inches high, of a very dark complexion, and appears to be about 28 years of age—had on when committed an oznaburgh shift, an old white cotton petticoat, and a red calico frock.—Her oldest child is a boy, who is called Thomas—of a dark complexion, and appears to be about 5 years old.—The other is a girl, who is called Ann, also of a dark complexion, and appears to be about 3 years old. The owner is desired to come and take them away, otherwise they will be sold as the law directs, for their prison fees, &c. THO. A. DAVIS,

Sheriff of Charles County.

50 Dollars Reward.

ABSCONDED on Saturday morning, the 15th inst. negro George, or George Griffin, the property of Miss M'Call, by trade a nailer, and understands some part of the blacksmith's business; he is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, stout made, very black complexion, large eyes and mouth, with thick lips. He is a very artful fellow and has been in the habit of obtruding himself as a free man, and will no doubt attempt to pass as such, and probably get work—has a down look when spoken to.—His clothes not recollected, having various suits.

A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county, 20 in the county of Washington or Fairfax, or the above reward if taken 50 miles from town, with all reasonable charges if brought home.

Masters of vessels are cautioned against harboring or carrying off said runaway, as they will be dealt with according to law.

Land for Sale

THE subscriber offers for sale a tract of 30 acres of land, on the Colchester road, five miles from Alexandria, adjoining the lands of Haywood Foote and Dennis Johnston. The greater part of this tract is fine meadow land, abundantly supplied with water. Also one other tract of 261 acres, on the Ravensworth road, about 6 miles from Alexandria, and one mile from the first mentioned tract, adjoining land of Thos. Janney and Mr. M'Pherson: the greater part of this tract is in wood, the soil good and highly susceptible of improvement from the use of plaster. If these lands are not sold before the first of January next, they will then be for rent.
